Re: United States v. Donziger, No. 19-cr-561 (LAP), 11-civ-691 (LAK)

Dear Judge Preska:

To a hammer, everything looks like a nail. And to a prosecutor, a defendant's history and character are reduced solely to the conduct that resulted in his conviction. Indeed, in the Prosecution's Sentencing Memorandum, Mr. Donziger's life receives scant attention outside of this criminal case.

Filed herewith are three letters from distinguished and accomplished members of the bar, who have known Steven Donziger for a combined eighty-years. They shed light on his integrity, courage, and intense desire to make the world better.

Because these letters are coming in daily, and because time is short, I will be submitting them to the Court on a regular basis. Our Sentencing Memorandum will incorporate them by reference.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Kuby
